

The Name Fictitious.

"Didn't Consider It A Marriage

The plaintiff has never considered herself as the wife of the defendant nor has she ever considered that the defendant was her husband.

"Although there have been meetings between the plaintiff and the defendant since Dec. 28, 1964, all of said meetings were casual and without any legal assistance as any married woman would meet a man to whom she was not married."

The complaint then says that the plaintiff has never been known as the woman's wife, but always as Helen Mason, and that they have never lived together as man and wife.

The plaintiff, it is claimed, believed that the defendant was married to another woman and that the marriage was valid if fictitious names were used, and accordingly the false names were given.

Fearing A Forced Marriage

"Furthermore," it is alleged, "the Osborne, the defendant, testified that he resided at No. 1 West Twenty-third street and was a stock broker at No. 6 Broad street. He had known Blossom for nearly three years, and first met her at Spring Lake, N. J., in 1926. When he met her, she was 17 years of age, but he fast ascertained that she was not so fast. They were frequently together alone after the engagement. He testified that he had no doubts attending the decision to get married. He testified that the reasons for having this ceremony performed? A. He wanted to make our engagement more permanent. Q. At this stage the marriage certificate was put in evidence. A. Yes. Q. Did you go down after the ceremony? A. Yes. We returned to Blossom east Inn. Q. And to remain the two gentlemen we had left there. A. Yes. Q. Were you at that time a member of the New York Stock Exchange? A. Yes. Q. Has there ever been a ceremony performed since by a priest of the Catholic Church? A. There was never any consummation of the marriage? A. There never

(Special to The Evening World.)

[illegible]

EVENING WORLD

For the most popular
National League Team.

I vote for

Name

Address

Address Letters to Baseball Editor,

BATTING ORDER

individual members of the present to the most popular medal. All New York fans rough The Evening World printed daily in the Noon.

BASEBALL PRIZE.

member of the New York

.....

.....

.....

Evening World, P. O. Box 1,354

(Continued from First Page.)

Flavor, Cleanliness
the three graces

Wh
Cey

■ A 10c. package

913 FIRST RACE—Two-year-olds; handicap; $500 added; about six furlongs.
Post time, 2:20; off, 2:31. Start good. Won handily. Winner, ca. 6, by Golden makes 40 cups

THURSDAY, SEPT. 17, 1908.

[illegible]

1 of 1 Most Popular Giant

The Giants are playing the best baseball that New York has witnessed in years. They are out for the pennant, and from now until the close of the season the struggle promises to be the most exciting in the history of the league. As an encouragement to the individual members of the team The Evening World will present to the most popular player a diamond-studded gold medal. All New York fans can express their preference through The Evening World coupon below, which will be printed daily in the Noon, Baseball and Final editions:

EVENING WORLD BASEBALL PRIZE

EVENING WORLD BASEBALL PRIZE
 For the most popular member of the New York
 National League Team.
 I vote for
 Name
 Address
 Address Letters to Baseball Editor, Evening World, P. O. Box 1,354

Flavor, Cleanliness, Strength, the three graces of

White Rose Ceylon Tea

■ A 10c. package makes 40 cups

TO-NIGHT

theater
THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP
theater

DIED.

MOROSINI.—On Tuesday, Sept. 18, 1906, at his residence, Riverdale, N. Y., GIOVANNI P. MOROSINI in the 77th year of his age.

Funeral private. Please omit flowers.

LOST, FOUND AND REWARDS.

LOST—Tuesday morning, 40 W. 17th, English bull terrier, heavy leather brass collar, answering to name Tommy; suitable reward.

Sunday World Wants Work
Monday Morning Wonders.